Jim decided to get a ship and a crew, and go search for Treasure Island. The crew's cook was a large man with one leg named Long John Silver. Silver was a charismatic sailor, and everyone liked him.

The ship sailed out of the port, and traveled for many days. Soon Treasure Island appeared on the horizon. Everything seemed to be going well, until suddenly a mutiny occurred aboard the ship. The mutiny was led by none other than Long John Silver. It turned out the crew members were actually pirates.

The pirates took Jim to Treasure Island. Jim managed to escape. As he ran through the jungle, he met a man named Ben Gunn, who had been stranded on Treasure Island for many years.

Meanwhile Silver and his crew arrived at the location of the treasure, but the treasure was missing. Ben Gunn had moved the treasure, and far away from the pirates, he showed it to Jim.

Together they loaded the treasure onto the ship and sailed away, leaving the pirates stranded on Treasure Island.
